There's no problem in this approach to accomplishing maintenance painting in view of the need to reduce the number of onboard maintenance personnel and thus keep the T/O within limits.

██████████ has indicated he has yet another additional $15,000 available which he would like to use as a further extension of the contract. I don't feel this is appropriate because its use would result in the value of the amendments excessively exceeding the basic contract amount. In a field as competitive as the painting field, I feel it's more appropriate to rebid a new contract.
